“Paulding Star”

Ileana “Angel”, born 3/2005, is an engaging, articulate, insightful and stylish African American/Caucasian girl with high self-esteem and a desire to stay busy. She loves chorus, ballet and dance and enjoys practicing her dance routines as well as performing. This imaginative child also enjoys playing in the back yard, doing arts and crafts, putting puzzles together and playing games. Intelligent and self-motivated, Angel is a good student who loves to learn, enjoys studying and excels in school, especially in reading. Angel needs a loving adoptive family who will provide her with the attention, support, encouragement and nurturing environment she needs to continue to thrive. Her family will also need to support her desire to maintain her relationship with her foster mother as well as her need for ongoing therapy.
